

- Send a “welcome email” to students at both your primary and secondary institution

- Include customized message for each institution

- Instruct students of how/where to login to their course

